We searched and bought cars then we cut the price and bought them. Finally, we fix some malfunctions and sold them for good money.

Hobbies

I enjoy telling and programming. I have skills in how to sell everything that I need to get rid of and earn. I am a student and I want to improve myself and learn English from native speakers, understand how to see your country, people, traditions, I really want to work in your country. Please give me this opportunity.
